

LIST of practical skills for the Faculty of Foreign Students

1. The technique of solid examination of dermatological and venereal patient.
2. Primary and secondary morphological elements (spot, knot, bump, bubble, blister, pustule, scale, crust, erosion, ulcer, fissure, lichenification, etc.).
3. Determination of moisture, greasiness, dryness, skin turgor.
4. Determination of dermographism.
5. Methods of production of drop and compressor allergy skin tests and their interpretation.
6. Dosage forms for topical use in the treatment of skin diseases and indications for their intended purpose.
7. Examination of the patient under Wood's lamp.
8. Taking the material, the preparation and study of their drugs on fungi.
9. The method of disinfection of footwear with foot fungus diseases.
10. Nikolsky symptom in pemphigus.
11. Writing of the basic dermatological recipes.
12. Taking the material for the preparation of drugs in a study on the detection of Treponema pallidum, gonorrhea and trichomonas.
13. Palpation of the chancre.
14. Disinfection of hands and tools when working with patients with syphilis, gonorrhea, etc.
15. The technique of individual prevention of venereal diseases.