

PHILOSOPHY

Knowledge

By the end of this course, students will be able to know

- the main bases of the major philosophical doctrines;
- leading thinkers in the history of philosophy;
- the main problems, categories, principles and philosophy laws;
- the basic principles of the philosophical concepts of life;
- the fundamental components of the philosophical theory of the person;
- the basic principles, laws and mechanisms of informative activity, the major philosophical methods and regulators of scientific research;
- the main regulators of the development of the modern society;
- the sense and maintenance of the global problems of mankind, the main strategy and prospects of their permission;

Skills

By the end of this course, students will be able to

- formulate and give reason for the main ideas and values of the philosophical outlook;
- apply philosophical ideas and categories in the analysis of social, cultural and professional problems and situations;
- carry out an intelligent valuable choice;
- formulate and give reason for the ideological, social and political position, define a role of the public and professional activity;
- estimate prospects of the development of the major social problems and possibility of innovative activity in scientific professional field according to their decision.