

Criteria for the evaluation of the knowledge of students

Level of knowledge of students on lessons determines by following marks: 10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1.

Criteria for the evaluation of the knowledge shown by the students during oral answers and practical skills:

Mark 10 “ten”

- is given for student, who shows deep and complete knowledge on all parts of educational program and shows knowledge of the additional materials; precise use of specialized terminology and stylistically competent, logical presentation of answers to the questions: and give them a critical assessment; the ability to effectively use them in formulating and solving professional problems; ability to independently and creatively to solve complex problems in a unusual situations; a complete and deep understanding of basic and additional literature; active participation in group discussions.

Mark 9 “nine”

- is given for student, who shows deep and complete knowledge on all parts of educational program; use of specialized terminology and stylistically competent, logical presentation of answers to the questions: and give them a critical assessment; the ability to effectively use them in formulating and solving professional problems; ability to independently and creatively to solve complex problems in a unusual situations; a complete and deep understanding of basic and additional literature; active participation in group discussions.

Mark 8 “eight”

– is given for student, who shows deep and complete knowledge on all given questions within the limits of educational program; use of specialized terminology and stylistically competent, logical presentation of answers to the questions: and give them a critical assessment; the ability to effectively use them in formulating and solving professional problems; ability to independently and creatively to solve complex problems in a unusual situations; a complete and deep understanding of basic and additional literature; active participation in group discussions.

Mark 7 “seven”

- is given for student, who shows deep and complete knowledge on all given questions within the limits of educational program; use of specialized terminology and stylistically competent, logical presentation of answers to the questions: and give them a critical assessment; a understanding of basic literature; participation in group discussions.

Mark 6 “six”

– is given for student, who shows deep and almost complete knowledge on all given questions within the limits of educational program; use of specialized terminology and stylistically competent, logical presentation of answers to the questions: and give them a critical assessment; a understanding of basic literature; participation in group discussions.

Mark 5 “five”

– is given for student, who shows almost complete knowledge on all given questions within the limits of educational program; use of specialized terminology and stylistically competent, logical presentation of answers to the questions: and give them a critical assessment; a understanding of basic literature; participation in group discussions.

Mark 4 “four”

– is given for student, who shows knowledge within educational standard; mastering the basic literature; the use of special terminology, logical presentation of correct answers to questions, the ability to make conclusions without significant errors; a understanding of basic literature; participation in group discussions, the ability to solve the teacher-led standard (typical) task, work under the guidance of a teacher on the practical, laboratory studies.

Mark 3 “three”, “not credited”

– is given for student, who shows insufficient knowledge within educational standard; knowledge is only part of the literature, the use of terminology, the presentation to answer the question with significant linguistic and logical errors; incompetence in dealing with the standard (model) problems, passivity on practical, laboratory studies.

Mark 2 “two”, “not credited”

– is given for student, who shows only fragmentary knowledge of the educational standard, but some knowledge of the literature; the inability to use a special terminology, the presence of stylistic and logical errors; the passivity of practical and laboratory classes.

Mark 1 “one”, “not credited”

– is given for student, who shows lack of knowledge within educational standard; or refuse from answer.