

List of competences and skills in the discipline «Psychiatry and Addiction Medicine» for Faculty of Foreign Students.

Students, who have completed a course in the discipline «Psychiatry and Addiction Medicine», have to know:

- theoretical bases of psychiatry and addiction medicine,
- foundations of general and specific psychopathology,
- strategy of conducting the psychiatric interview and other methods of psychiatric examination
- principles of differential diagnosis.

Students must be able:

- to make the psychiatric interview: to take objective, subjective and psychological anamnesis,
- to recognize syndromes and make a preliminary diagnosis,
- to accomplish a differential diagnosis,
- to make a final diagnosis, to prove it according to the diagnostic criterion of ICD-10,
- to determine prognosis of disease, strategy of treatment and rehabilitation of a patient,
- to provide the emergency care to the patient in a psychiatric hospital,
- to take care of a patient and to accomplish the rehabilitation measures.